

Zero Pairs: When adding and subtracting integers, you will often deal with “zero pairs”. These are when a positive and negative match up, cancelling each other out to equal zero. Positive 1 and negative 1 make a zero pair. The picture how counters and zero pairs can be used to show that $-6 + 8 = 2$.

